

QUESTIONS FOR A MOVIE CONVERSATION

OBJECTIVE LEVEL

MOVIE

What scenes do you recall in the movie?
Who were the main characters in the story?
What lines of dialogue stand out for you?
Where do you remember music in the story?
What scenery was particularly striking?
What were some indoor scenes?
What inanimate objects do you recall?
What facial expressions do you recall?
What emotional moments stood out?
What was the sequence of events in the story?
What did you see as symbols?

REFLECTIVE LEVEL

MOVIE

Where did you laugh?
Where did you feel happy? Sad? Other emotions?
Where did the group respond audibly (laugh, gasp, cry, etc.)?
What made that scene (line, incident) funny? Or sad?
What would you change in the movie?
Which character did you most identify with?
How did you feel empathy towards that character?
Which character did you dislike the most? Why?
Who did you identify with that you didn't want to identify with?
What was the group's mood at the end of the movie?
What was your own mood at the end of the story?
What were the turning points in the story?

INTERPRETIVE LEVEL

MOVIE

What was the key moment in the story?
What was really going on in that scene?
What were these characters struggling with?
What was the core issue/dilemma in their lives?
What were these characters' motives?
What journey was the main character on?
What would you say the movie is really about?
What is the impact of this story in today's world?
What issue(s) in society does the movie address?
What ethical questions does this story raise for you?
Where have you seen this happening in your life?
What kind of journey did it take you on?

DECISIONAL LEVEL

MOVIE

What do you most appreciate about this story?
What do you least appreciate about this story?
How would you briefly describe this story to someone?
How is this story helpful for us today?
What title would you give the movie?
How do you notice being different after seeing the movie?
How has this story changed your perspective on life?
How does the movie affect your relationship to the future?
What will you do differently now?